PI LUNCH

Thursday 14 of March 2019
12:00 - 13:00
Mærsk Tower, 7.15.152
LUNCH IS INCLUDED

Maria Kristiansen
Associate Professor
Research Group Leader
Section of Health Services Research, Department of Public Health & Center for Healthy Aging

Maria is interdisciplinary and mixed-methods at heart. Her curiosity has driven her to pursue a broad spectrum of topics within the field of health services research. Her studies focuses on aging populations and their specific needs for person-centered healthcare.

As a young group leader, Maria loves working with different societal stakeholders outside of academia on collaborative and interdisciplinary projects. Translating research into practice and conducting research based on insights from a range of stakeholders is what Maria aims for. She is part of the UCPH Forward program that nurture new approaches to research and research leadership.

Sign up before 12 March via our Facebook group Network for Young Scholars (NYS) or at https://healthyaging.ku.dk/registrations/2019/pi-lunch-march-2019/
